Challenge from Heenan.

New York, Oct. 11.

I have been informed through the medium of the public press, and from those who were present and heard him, that Mr. Morrisey stated a few days since that he would fight any man in the world and me in particular for 10,000 dollars. If this he indeed, Mr. Morrisey's wish, I shall be mere happy to accommodate him either before or after my contest with Sayers, for the championship of England. I will put up a forfeit to fight him for 10,000 dollars at the time and piace that may be mutually agreed upon, according to the rules of the prize ring.
